

Security made in Lëtzebuerg g.i.e. has been established in 2010 under the patronage of the Ministry of Economy, in partnership with SIGI and SYVICOL. SECURITYMADEIN.LU is strengthening its high performing team and, is looking for a Senior Information Security Analyst (m/f) (permanent contract, full-time)

Mission and role

- Participate in the development of the CASES department
- Verify, review and consult on ISO 27001 certification implementations and security policies
- Perform risk assessments and develop, implement and maintain Risk Models according to the MONARC method for the public and private sector
- Analyse information security data to develop informed governance techniques
- Perform awareness and risk assessment training for different target audiences
- Manage information security projects
- Advise on best practice

Profile and requirements

- 5 years of experience in information security consultancy or audit
- Competent in information security, data privacy, risk governance (27001 & 27005)
- Competent in implementing and auditing PSDC
- Be familiar with database, data-structure design and analysis
- Excellent problem solving, decision-making and investigative skills
- Experienced in establishing and maintaining effective working relationships with clients and team
- Excellent oral and written communication to address technical and non-technical audiences
- Master degree or equivalent
- Fluent in English and French (mandatory), oral and in writing
- Driving license B

Considered as advantage:

- ISO 27001 Lead Implementor and ISO 27005 risk manager
- Competent in implementing and auditing other standards like IT-Grundschutz
- Certificates CISSP, CISA, CISM or other
- Programming knowledge in PHP, Javascript, Python and SQL
- Luxembourgish and/or German is considered as an advantage
- Software Engineering knowledge
- CSIRT/CERT experience

If you are interested in this profile, send your application in English or French, including a motivation letter, your CV and references of your expertise, specifying the job reference "Sen-InfoSec-Analyst_2021" to hr@securitymadein.lu

December 18, 2020